RFP – Worker's Compensation Self-Insured Reserve Analysis

ADDENDUM #1 – Dated January 29, 2009

REVISED

In response to the questions regarding this RFP, the Office of the State Comptroller has decided to make available to all potential bidders a copy of the Executive Summary of the current Worker's Compensation Self-insured Reserve Analysis, as of June 30, 2008.

The questions received regarding the RFP are listed below:

The scope of work requires the proposer to calculate the loss reserve separately by department. Approximately, for how many departments will the actuary need to calculate a reserve estimate?

Because the actuary will be required to show a comparison of the loss reserves from the prior year to the current year, will the actuarial report for June 30, 2008, be made available to the successful bidder?

What is the name of the firm that currently performs the actuarial service?

What fees has the State paid to the actuarial firm to perform this service?

Who was the last consulting firm that performed the work?

How long have the current actuaries been providing their service?

What were the annual fees charged and the terms of the contract?

Has the scope of work changed since the work was done?

Can we get a copy of the most recent actuarial report?

Can we get a copy of the proposal of the last successful bidder?

Can we get the allocation points that will be given for each criteria that will be used to make a decision?

Is a physical office in the State of Connecticut a requirement?

Under Section V. Proposal Submission Requirements, Contract Compliance, you have listed five factors and require compliance with one or more of these factors. Is compliance with one or more of the factors necessary in order to be awarded this contract?

Please provide a list of departments that comprise the workers compensation self-insurance program.

Please provide the most recently available actuarial report and opinion, with underlying detail of methodologies and exhibits.

Please provide the winning proposal from the current incumbent actuarial service provider.

Please provide the annual fees charged for the most recent four years of services provided.

Please provide the name of the incumbent actuarial service provider for this engagement.

Please provide the most recent financial statements for the workers compensation self-insurance division.

Is the actuarial report to include a funding estimate for the future year(s)?

Are there other reports/schedules that the State requires outside of the year-end valuation as of June 30?

Is the report only produced once a year?

How many on-site meetings/presentations with the OSC is the actuary expected to make per year?

Is payroll available by NCCI class code?

How many major departments are there for which to allocate reserves?

Please provide a list of the departments for which reserves should be calculated.

In the current actuarial report, are separate analyses performed for each department or is the total program reviewed and then allocated to each department?

Although we have various offices located in Connecticut, we do not have employees in the state qualified to perform the services requested? Are we still allowed to submit a proposal?

Are the reserve estimates to be provided on a discounted basis?

Is a range of reserve estimates to be provided or just point estimates?

REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS (RFP)
WORKERS COMPENSATION SELF-INSURED RESERVE ANALYSIS
OFFICE OF THE STATE COMPTROLLER
NOVEMBER 25, 2008

I. STATEMENT OF OBJECTIVES

The purpose of this RFP is to retain actuarial services to conduct an independent actuarial review of the loss reserve requirements in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) for the State of Connecticut's self-insured Workers Compensation program. Such loss reserve is to be calculated as of June 30th each year for the duration of the contract period.

II. BACKGROUND

As of June 30, 2004 The State's total Workers Compensation reserve requirements for loss liability consisted of case reserves on reported claims, additional developments on these case reserves, incurred but not reported claims, reopened claims, and claims in transit (reported but not recorded). The overall undiscounted loss reserve liability was estimated at between $256.2 and $297.2 million.

The State of Connecticut has provided workers compensation coverage to its employees on a self-insured basis since the early 1950's. It retains responsibility for all claims and does not purchase per claim or aggregate reinsurance. Since January of 2002, GAB Robins North America, Inc. has served as the State's claims administrator.

III. SCOPE OF WORK

OSC wishes to contract with a firm providing actuarial services with substantial expertise in workers' compensation programs. The loss reserve requirement is needed for the State's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR), which is prepared in accordance with GAAP.

The contract will be for the four-year period, July 1, 2009 to June 30, 2013, as follows:

Year 1	Valuation as of June 30, 2009
Year 2	Valuation as of June 30, 2010
Year 3	Valuation as of June 30, 2011
Year 4	Valuation as of June 30, 2012

The contractor will be expected to produce an annual loss reserve amount for the State's Workers Compensation Fund. The calculation of the annual loss reserve amount must comply with the requirements of GAAP as established by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board. Loss reserves must be calculated by department. An annual actuarial report must be produced containing the following information:

- A scope of the review including any relevant assumptions or limitations applied in calculating the loss reserve.
- The reserve recommendation with major department loss reserves detailed and a comparison to the prior year's loss reserve.
- Any comments or recommendations arising from the analysis.
- > Summarized data used in performing the loss reserve analysis.

IV. EXPECTED RESULTS

Production of an annual actuarial report as defined in the "scope of work" section above on or before the third Monday in February. For the first year of the contract the completion date is negotiable.

V. PROPOSAL SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Each firm that wishes to be considered for the contract shall submit four (4) copies of their proposal to be delivered to the following address no later than 3:00 p.m. (local time), Monday, March 9, 2009.

- 3. Timing and sequence of events resulting from this RFP will ultimately be determined by the Office of the State Comptroller.
- 4. The Proposer agrees that the proposal will remain valid for a period of 120 days after the deadline for submission and may be extended beyond that time by mutual agreement.

- 7. Any costs and expenses incurred by the Proposers in preparing or submitting proposals are the sole responsibility of the Proposer.
- 8. A Proposer must be prepared to present evidence of experience, ability, service facilities and financial condition necessary to satisfactorily meet the requirements set forth or implied in the proposal.
- 9. No additions or changes to the original proposal will be allowed after submission. While changes are not permitted, clarification of proposals may be required by the Office of the State Comptroller at the Proposer's sole cost and expense.

The contract may be amended only by means of a written instrument signed by the Office of the State Comptroller, the Proposer and the Attorney Generals Office.
- 15. The Office of the State Comptroller reserves the right to award in part, to reject any and all proposals in whole or in part for misrepresentation or if the Proposer is in default of any prior State contract, or if the proposal limits or modifies any of the terms and conditions and/or specifications of this RFP. The Office of the State Comptroller also reserves the right to waive technical defect, irregularities and omissions if, in its judgment, the best interest of the Office of the State Comptroller will be served.

16. The Office of the State Comptroller reserves the right to correct inaccurate awards resulting from its clerical errors. This may include, in extreme circumstances, revoking the awarding of a contract already made to a Proposer and subsequently awarding the contract to another Proposer. Such action on the part of the Office of the State Comptroller shall not constitute a breach of contract on the part of the Office of the State Comptroller since the contract with the initial Proposer is deemed to be void ab initio and of no effect as if no contract ever existed between the Office of the State Comptroller and the Proposer.

If the contract is a public works contract, the Contractor agrees and warrants that he will make good faith efforts to employ minority business enterprises as subcontractors and suppliers of materials on such public works projects.

Determination of the Contractor's good faith efforts shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following factors: The Contractor's employment and subcontracting policies, patterns and practices: affirmative advertising, recruiting; technical assistance activities and such other reasonable activities or efforts as the Commission may prescribe that are designed to ensure the participation of minority business enterprises in public works projects.

THE OFFICE OF STATE ETHICS (OSE)

The Connecticut Office of State Ethics (OSE) was officially created on July 1, 2005, by Public Act 05-183. The governing body of the OSE is the Citizen's Ethics Advisory Board (CEAB), nine members appointed by the Governor and legislative leadership. The CEAB holds monthly meetings that are open to the public and that are often covered by CT-N. A schedule of CEAB meeting dates, times and locations is available on the OSE's Web site, www.ct.gov/ethics.

The OSE is an independent watchdog agency for the state of Connecticut that administers Connecticut General Statutes, Chapter 10, Parts I and II, with limited jurisdiction over Part IV.

Simply put, the OSE educates all those covered by the law (the "regulated community"); provides information to the public; interprets and applies the codes of ethics; and investigates potential violations of the codes.

The OSE is made up of the following components:

- Citizen's Ethics Advisory Board
- Executive Director
- Legal Division
- Enforcement Division

THE BIG PICTURE

All state officials and employees (except judges) are covered by Part I of the Code of Ethics for Public Officials (henceforth, Part I, or the Code). It is important to remember that certain provisions of the Code also apply to public officials and state employees after they leave state service.

As you read through this guide, be aware that these laws were enacted to prevent individuals from using their public position or authority for personal, financial benefit.

Each state agency also has its own ethics policy, which in many cases may be more restrictive than what follows. Be sure to obtain a copy of the agency's policy before you attempt to provide any benefit to an agency official or employee.

GIVING BENEFITS TO STATE PERSONNEL

Gifts

As a current or potential state contractor, you are presumably doing business with or seeking to do business with a state agency, and are therefore considered to be a regulated donor. In general, public officials or state employees may not accept gifts from regulated donors.

Regulated Donors

Regulated donors include:

- Registered lobbyists (the OSE can tell you who is registered);
- Individuals or groups doing business with a state department or agency;
- Individuals or groups seeking to do business with a state department or agency;
- Individuals or groups engaged in activities regulated by a state department or agency; or
- Contractors pre-qualified by the Connecticut Department of Administrative Services (Conn. Gen. Stat. § 4a-100).

A gift is defined as anything of value that is directly and personally received by a public official or state employee (or sometimes family members of those two categories) unless consideration of equal or greater value is provided. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-79 (e).

Gift Exceptions

There are, however, certain exceptions to this definition of gift. Not all exceptions are covered below; see Conn. Gen. Stat. \S 1-79 (e) (1) – (17) for the complete list.

- Token Items Regulated donors such as current or potential state contractors may provide any item of value that is under $10 (such as a pen, mug, or inexpensive baseball cap) to a public official or state employee, provided that the annual aggregate of such items from a single source is under $50. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-79 (e) (16).
- Food and Beverage Regulated donors may also provide up to $50 worth of food and beverage in a calendar year to a public official or state employee, provided that the regulated donor or his/her representative is in attendance when the food and/or beverage is being consumed. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-79 (e) (9).
- Training Vendors may provide public officials and state employees with training for a product purchased by a state or quasi-public agency provided such training is offered to all customers of that vendor. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-79 (e)(17).

- Gifts to the State Regulated donors may provide what are typically referred to as "gifts to the state." These gifts are goods and services provided to a state agency or quasi-public agency for use on state or quasi-public agency property or that support an event, and which facilitate state or quasi-public action or functions. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-79 (e) (5).
- Other Exceptions There are a total of 17 separate gift exceptions in the Code. Also exempt from the definition of gift are items such as informational materials germane to state action, ceremonial plaques or awards costing less than $100, or promotional items, rebates or discounts also available to the general public. See Conn. Gen. Stat. \S 1-79 (e) (1) (17).

Note: The popularly-cited exception for major life events does not apply to those who are regulated by, doing business with or seeking to do business with a state agency. The only regulated donor that can make use of this very narrow exception is a registered lobbyist.

Gift Provisions

Example: You are in the process of submitting a contracting bid to a state agency. You provide the agency head with a gift certificate for $45 to a popular West Hartford eatery for her to use on her own. You have not previously given anything of value to this individual. Even though you are under the permissible $50 food and beverage limit, this gift is not allowed because you or your representative will not be in attendance while the food and beverage is being consumed.

Reporting Requirements

Should you or your representative give anything of value to a public official or state employee, you must, within 10 days, give the gift recipient and the head of that individual's department or agency a written report stating:

- Name of the donor:
- Description of item(s) given;
- Value of such item(s); and
- Total cumulative value of all items to date given to that recipient during the calendar year.

This helps both you and the state employee keep track of the gift exceptions noted above, so that permissible limits are not exceeded. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84 (o).

Necessary Expenses

You may provide necessary expenses to a public official or state employee only if the official or employee, in his/her official capacity, is actively participating in an event by giving a speech or presentation, running a workshop, or having some other active involvement.

Necessary expenses can include:

- Travel (not first class);
- Lodging (standard cost of room for the nights before, of, and immediately following the event);
- Meals; and
- Related conference expenses.

Entertainment costs (tickets to sporting events, golf outings, night clubs, etc.) are not necessary expenses. Necessary expense payments also do not include payment of expenses for family members or other guests.

Please note, within 30 days of receiving payment or reimbursement of necessary expenses for lodging or out-of-state travel, state employees must file an ETH-NE form with the Office of State Ethics (OSE). Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84 (k).

Fees/Honorariums

Public officials and state employees may not accept fees or honorariums for an article, appearance, speech or participation at an event in their official capacity.

Fees or honorariums for such activities, if offered based solely on expertise and without any regard to official capacity, may be acceptable. Contact the OSE before offering such payment to an official or employee. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84 (k).

Necessary Expenses, Fees and Honorariums

Example: You invite a state employee to travel to New York City to give a speech to your managers on issues surrounding contracting with a state agency. You provide Amtrak fare for the employee as well as his spouse, who will spend the day in the city. The evening of the speech you will treat the employee and his spouse with complimentary tickets to a Broadway show in lieu of a speaking fee.

You may provide non-first class travel expenses only to the state employee who is actively participating in an event. In this case, you may only provide Amtrak fare for the employee giving the speech, not his spouse. Entertainment costs, such as tickets to a show, are not considered necessary expenses and may not be provided. Additionally, state employees may not accept fees or honorariums for a speech given in their official capacity.

HIRING STATE PERSONNEL

Post-state Employment (Revolving Door)

If you are considering hiring a former state employee, you should be aware of the Code's post-state employment, or revolving door, provisions.

Lifetime Bans

- Former state employees may never disclose any confidential information they learned during the course of their state service for anyone's financial gain. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84a.
- A former state official or employee may never represent anyone other than the state regarding a particular matter in which he or she was personally or substantially involved while in state service and in which the state has a substantial interest. This prevents side-switching. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84b (a).

One-year Bans

- If you hire or otherwise engage the services of a former state official or employee, he or she may not represent you before his or her former agency for a period of one year after leaving state service. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84b (b). (See Advisory Opinion 2003-3, which provides a limited exception to this provision if the employee is providing purely technical expertise, for example, to help implement a previously-awarded contract. This exception applies to extremely limited circumstances; contact the OSE for guidance.)
- You are prohibited from hiring a former state official or employee for a period of one year after he or she leaves state service if that individual was substantially involved in, or supervised, the negotiation or award of a contract (that you or your business was a party to) valued at $50,000 or more, and the contract was signed within his or her last year of state service. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84b (f).
- Employees who held certain specifically-designated positions (with significant decision-making or supervisory responsibility) at certain state regulatory agencies are prohibited from seeking or accepting employment with any business subject to regulation by the individual's agency within one year of leaving the agency. Note that there is an exception for ex-officio board or commission members. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84b (c).

Post-state Employment

Example: You run a hospital regulated by the Office of Health Care Access (OHCA). You would like to offer a job to the former Commissioner of OHCA, who has been out of state service for 5 months.

Because the hospital is regulated by a state agency whose Commissioner is specifically designated in 1-84b (c), the former head of such agency would not be permitted to accept employment with you for one full year after leaving state service. See Advisory Opinion 2003-19.

Outside Employment for Current Public Officials and State Employees

If you are considering hiring a current state employee, especially from a state agency with which you do business or by which you are regulated, you should be aware of the following rules regarding the employment of current state employees.

- A current state employee may not accept outside employment that impairs his or her independence of judgment regarding his or her state duties, or that encourages him or her to disclose confidential information learned in his or her state job. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84 (b).
- A current state employee may not use his or her state position for financial gain, however inadvertent that use may be. For example, a current state employee who exercises any contractual, supervisory or regulatory authority over you or your business may not be able to work for you. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84 (c).

Other Considerations

Business entities engaged in Indian gaming activities in the state should be aware of specific provisions that apply to present or former Gaming Policy Board or Division of Special Revenue public officials or employees. See Conn. Gen. Stat. §§ 1-84b (d) and (e).

Outside Employment

Example: Your small business occasionally receives grants or contracts from Agency X. You know that a particular contract manager with Agency X has the skills you need to help you grow your business. This employee has expressed interest in earning a little extra money for himself, while helping you with your business in the evenings and on weekends.

It would constitute an impermissible impairment of judgment for the employee of Agency X, who has contract management responsibilities, to accept outside employment with your business - a business that receives grants or contracts from Agency X.

OTHER PROVISIONS

Prohibited Activities for Consultants or Independent Contractors

If you are hired by the state as a consultant or independent contractor, you are prohibited from the following:

- Using your authority under the contract or any confidential information acquired during the course of the contract for your financial gain or the financial gain of your immediate family;
- Accepting another state contract that would impair your independence of judgment or your performance in your existing state contract;
- Accepting anything of value based on the understanding that your actions on behalf of the state would be influenced;

Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-86e (1) – (3); see also Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-101nn.

Gift and/or Campaign Contribution Certifications

Contractors seeking large state contracts must provide certifications regarding gifts and/or campaign contributions made to certain state employees or public officials in the two-year period prior to the submission of a bid or proposal. Copies of these certifications and other updated information regarding state contractors can be found on the Web sites of the Department of Administrative Services (www.das.state.ct.us) and the Office of Policy and Management (www.opm.state.ct.us).

Investment Services and the Office of the Treasurer

If you or your business provides investment services, as defined in the Code, and you make a political contribution in connection with the Office of the Treasurer, you may be prohibited from contracting with that office. See Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84 (n).

Registering as a Lobbyist

If you or your business spends or receives over $2,000 in a calendar year for activities that constitute lobbying under Part II of the Code of Ethics (whether to affect legislation or the actions of an administrative state agency), you/your business may have to register as a lobbyist with the Office of State Ethics. Lobbyist registration information is available at www.ct.gov/ethics.

Contribution Ban for Communicator Lobbyists (Conn. Gen. Stat. § 9-610 (g) and (h).) Registered communicator lobbyists, their affiliated political action committees (PACs) as well as members of their immediate families are banned from soliciting or donating political campaign contributions. Please contact the State Elections Enforcement Commission at 860-566-1776 for more information.

Sessional Contribution Ban for Client Lobbyists (Conn. Gen. Stat. § 9-610 (e).) Registered lobbyists and their affiliated political action committees (PACs) are banned from soliciting or donating political campaign contributions. Specifically, there is a temporary ban while the General Assembly is in session that applies to all registered client lobbyists and their affiliated PACs. Please contact the State Elections Enforcement Commission at 860-566-1776 for more information.

Public Act 05-287

Public Act 05-287 prohibits anyone who is a party (or seeking to become a party) to a large state construction, procurement, or consultant services contract over $500,000 from:

- Soliciting information from a public official or state employee that is not available to other bidders for that contract, with the intent to obtain a competitive advantage;
- Intentionally or recklessly charging a state agency for work not performed or goods or services not provided;
- Falsifying invoices or bills; or
- Intentionally violating or circumventing state competitive bidding and ethics laws.

This Act also requires any prospective state contractor to affirm in writing that he or she has received a summary of the state's ethics laws and that his or her key employees have read and understood the summary and agree to comply with the applicable provisions. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-101qq.

An affirmation form is available through the Department of Administrative Services.

Executive Orders

Executive Order 3

Under this Order, the Department of Administrative Services established and maintains on its Web site the State Contracting Portal for purposes of posting all contracting opportunities with state agencies and providing information on contracting processes and procedures.

Executive Order 7C

This Order covers the State Contracting Standards Board, established to conduct a comprehensive review of existing procurement and contracting laws and prepare a uniform code to govern all aspects of procurement and contracting by January 1, 2007.

The full text of these Executive Orders can be found on the Governor's Web site, www.ct.gov/governorrell/site/default.asp.
