

REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS (RFP)
WORKERS' COMPENSATION SELF-INSURED RESERVE ANALYSIS
OFFICE OF THE STATE COMPTROLLER
March 18, 2013

I. STATEMENT OF OBJECTIVES

The purpose of this RFP is to retain actuarial services to conduct an independent actuarial review of the loss reserve requirements in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) for the State of Connecticut's self-insured Workers' Compensation program. Such loss reserve is to be calculated as of June 30th each year for the duration of the contract period.

II. BACKGROUND

As of June 30, 2012, the State's total Workers' Compensation reserve requirements for loss liability consisted of case reserves on reported claims, additional developments on these case reserves, incurred but not reported claims, reopened claims, and claims in transit (reported but not recorded). The overall undiscounted loss reserve liability was estimated at between $524.3 and $594.8 million.

The State of Connecticut has provided workers' compensation coverage to its employees on a self-insured basis since the early 1950's. It retains responsibility for all claims and does not purchase per claim or aggregate reinsurance. In January 2002, GAB Robins North America, Inc. began serving as the State's workers' compensation claims administrator. In October 2010, Gallagher Bassett Services, Inc. acquired GAB Robbins and took over the role of the State's claims administrator.

III. SCOPE OF WORK

OSC wishes to contract with a firm providing actuarial services with substantial expertise in workers' compensation programs. The loss reserve requirement is needed for the State's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR), which is prepared in accordance with GAAP.

The contract will be for the four-year period, July 1, 2013 to June 30, 2017, as follows:

Year 1	Valuation as of June 30, 2013
Year 2	Valuation as of June 30, 2014
Year 3	Valuation as of June 30, 2015
Year 4	Valuation as of June 30, 2016

The contractor will be expected to produce an annual loss reserve amount for the State's Workers Compensation Fund. The calculation of the annual loss reserve amount must comply with the requirements of GAAP as established by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board. Loss reserves must be calculated by department. An annual actuarial report must be produced containing the following information:

- A scope of the review including any relevant assumptions or limitations applied in calculating the loss reserve.
- The reserve recommendation with major department loss reserves detailed and a comparison to the prior year's loss reserve.
- Any comments or recommendations arising from the analysis.
- Summarized data used in performing the loss reserve analysis.

IV. EXPECTED RESULTS

Production of an annual actuarial report as defined in the “scope of work” section above on or before December 15th. For the first year of the contract the completion date is negotiable.

- E. Timing and sequence of events resulting from this RFP will ultimately be determined by the Comptroller.
- F. The Proposer agrees that the proposal will remain valid for a period of 180 days after the deadline for submission and may be extended beyond that time by mutual agreement.
- G. The Comptroller may amend or cancel this RFP, prior to the due date and time, if the Comptroller deems it to be necessary, appropriate or otherwise in the best interests of the Comptroller. Failure to acknowledge receipt of amendments, in accordance with the instructions contained in the amendments, may result in a proposal not being considered
- H. The Proposer must certify that the personnel identified in its response to this RFP will be the persons actually assigned to the project. Any additions, deletions or changes in personnel assigned to the project must be approved by the Comptroller or its designee, with the exception of personnel who have terminated employment. Replacements for personnel who have terminated employment are subject to approval by the Comptroller or its designee. At its discretion, the Comptroller may require the removal and replacement of any of the Proposer's personnel who do not perform

The Proposer further represents and warrants that the Proposer did not participate in any part of the RFP development process, had no knowledge of the specific contents of the RFP prior to its issuance, and that no agent, representative or employee of the Comptroller and/or Commission participated directly in the Proposer's proposal preparation.
- O. All responses to the RFP must conform to instruction. Failure to include any required signatures, provide the required number of copies, to meet deadlines, answer all questions, follow the required format, or failure to comply with any other requirements of this RFP may be considered appropriate cause for rejection of the response.

The contract may be amended only by means of a written instrument signed by the Comptroller, the Proposer, and the AG's Office.
- R. Rights Reserved to the Comptroller: The Comptroller reserves the right to award in part, to reject any and all proposals in whole or in part for misrepresentation or if the Proposer is in default of any prior State contract, or if the proposal limits or modifies any of the terms and conditions and/or specifications of the RFP. The Comptroller also reserves the right to waive technical defect, irregularities and omissions if, in its judgment, the best interest of the Comptroller will be served. Proposers should be advised that all State contracts must strictly adhere to certain terms and conditions with respect to liability and litigation. The Proposer must agree that the contract shall be governed by, construed, and enforced in accordance with the laws and court decisions of the State of Connecticut without giving effect to its principles of conflicts of laws. Under no circumstances may a State contract contain limited liability and/or binding arbitration provisions. The State or Comptroller may not indemnify a Proposer and shall not waive its sovereign immunity.

- S. The Comptroller reserves the right to correct inaccurate awards resulting from its clerical errors. This may include, in extreme circumstances, revoking the awarding of a contract already made to a Proposer and subsequently awarding the contract to another Proposer. Such action on the part of the Comptroller shall not constitute a breach of contract on the part of the Comptroller since the contract with the initial Proposer is deemed to be void ab initio and of no effect as if no contract ever existed between the Comptroller and the Proposer.

VIII. EVALUATION OF PROPOSALS

Each proposal will be evaluated by a screening committee against the following criteria to determine which vendor is most capable of implementing the state's requirements.

- Vendor's ability to perform the specified work.

This Agreement shall supersede all prior written agreements between the parties and their predecessors. No changes, amendments or modifications of any terms or conditions of the Agreement shall be valid unless reduced to writing and signed by both parties and where applicable approved by the Office of the Attorney General. The Contractor's proposal response was used as determinative in the request for proposal process that resulted in this Agreement.

B. Changes in Service

When changes in the services are required or requested by the Comptroller, Contractor shall promptly estimate their monetary effect and so notify the Comptroller. No change shall be implemented by Contractor unless it is approved by the Comptroller in writing; and, unless otherwise agreed to in writing, the provisions of this Agreement shall apply to all changes in the services. If the Comptroller determines that any change materially affects the cost or time of performance of this Agreement as a whole, Contractor and the Comptroller will mutually agree in writing to an equitable adjustment.

C. Independent Contractor

Contractor represents that it is fully experienced and properly qualified to perform the services provided for herein, and that it is properly licensed, equipped, organized, and financed to perform such services. It is acknowledged that services rendered by the Contractor to the Comptroller hereunder do not in any way conflict with other contractual commitments with or by the Contractor.

The Contractor agrees that the sole and exclusive means for the presentation of any claims against the State arising from this Agreement shall be in accordance with Chapter 53 of the Connecticut General Statutes (Claims Against the State) and the Contractor further agrees not to initiate legal proceedings in any State or Federal Court in addition to, or in lieu of, said Chapter 53 proceedings.

To the extent that any immunities provided by Federal law or the laws of the State of Connecticut do not bar an action against the State, and to the extent that these courts are courts of competent jurisdiction, for the purpose of venue, the complaint shall be made returnable to the Judicial District of Hartford only or shall be brought in the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut only, and shall not be transferred to any other court, provided, however, that nothing here constitutes a waiver or compromise of the sovereign immunity of the State of Connecticut. The Contractor shall provide written notice to the State of any litigation that relates to the services directly or indirectly financed under this Agreement or that has the potential to impair the ability of the Contractor to fulfill the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including but not limited to financial, legal or any other situation which may prevent the Contractor from meeting its obligations under the Agreement.

The Comptroller may then, at its option, ask Contractor to arrange for a temporary employee(s) or subcontractor(s) satisfactory to the Comptroller to provide the services otherwise performable by Contractor hereunder. The Contractor will be responsible to the Comptroller for any economic detriment caused the Comptroller by such subcontract arrangement.

Contractor shall, if requested to do so by the Comptroller, reassign from the Comptroller's account any employee or authorized representatives whom the Comptroller, in its sole discretion, determines is incompetent, dishonest, or uncooperative. In requesting the reassignment of an employee under this paragraph, the Comptroller shall give ten (10) days notice to Contractor of the Comptroller's desire for such reassignment. Contractor will then have five (5) days to investigate the situation and attempt, if it so desires, to satisfy the Comptroller that the employee should not be reassigned; however, the Comptroller's decision in its sole discretion after such five (5) day period shall be final. Should the Comptroller still desire reassignment, then five days thereafter, or ten (10) days from the date of the notice of reassignment, the employee shall be reassigned from the Comptroller's account.

In the event of any conflict between the provision of this Agreement and the provisions of Form CO-802A to which this Agreement is attached, the provisions of this Agreement shall control.

In case of conflicts, discrepancies, errors, or omissions among the various parts of this Agreement, any such matter shall be submitted immediately by Contractor to the Comptroller for clarification. The Comptroller shall issue such clarification within a reasonable period of time. Any services affected by such conflicts, discrepancies, errors, or omissions which are performed by Contractor prior to clarification by the Comptroller shall be at Contractor's risk.

G. Indemnity

Contractor hereby indemnifies and shall defend and hold harmless the State of Connecticut, the Comptroller, its officers, and its employees from and against any and all suits, actions, legal or administrative proceedings, claims, demands, damages, liabilities, monetary loss, interest, attorney's fees, costs and expenses of whatsoever kind or nature arising out of the performance of this Agreement, including those arising out of injury to or death of Contractor's employees or subcontractors, whether arising before, during, or after completion of the services hereunder and in any manner directly or indirectly caused, occasioned or contributed to in whole or in part, by reason of any act, omission, fault or negligence of Contractor or its employees, agents or subcontractors.

Contractor shall not release any information concerning the services provided pursuant to the Agreement or any part thereof to any member of the public, press, business entity or any official body unless prior written consent is obtained from the Comptroller.

I. Quality Surveillance and Examination of Records

All services performed by Contractor shall be subject to the inspection and approval of the Comptroller at all times, and Contractor shall furnish all information concerning the services.

The Comptroller or its representatives shall have the right at reasonable hours to examine any books, records, and other documents of Contractor or its subcontractors pertaining to work performed under this Agreement and shall allow such representatives free access to any and all such books and records. The Comptroller will give the Contractor at least twenty-four (24) hours notice of such intended examination. At the Comptroller's request, the Contractor shall provide the Comptroller with hard copies of or magnetic disk or tape containing any data or information in the possession or control of the Contractor which pertains to the Comptroller's business under this Agreement. The Contractor shall incorporate this paragraph verbatim into any Agreement it enters into with any subcontractor providing services under this Agreement.

The Contractor shall retain and maintain accurate records and documents relating to performance of services under this Agreement for a minimum of three (3) years after the final payment by the Comptroller and shall make them available for inspection and audit by the Comptroller.

Where such disclosure is required, Contractor will provide advance notice to the Comptroller of the need for the disclosure and will not disclose absent consent from the Comptroller.

The rights and obligations of the parties which by their nature survive termination or completion of the Agreement, including but not limited to those set forth herein in sections relating to Indemnity, Nondisclosure, Promotion, and Confidentiality of this Agreement, shall remain in full force and effect.

P. Americans with Disabilities Act

This clause applies to those Contractors which are or will become responsible for compliance with the terms of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 during the term of the contract. Contractor represents that it is familiar with the terms of this Act and that it is in compliance with the law. Failure of the Contractor to satisfy this standard either now or during the term of the contract as it may be amended will render the contract voidable at the option of the Comptroller upon notice to the Contractor. Contractor warrants that it will hold the Comptroller harmless from any liability which may be imposed upon the Comptroller as a result of any failure of the Contractor to be in compliance with this Act.

Q. Non-Discrimination and Executive Orders

According to Section 46a-68j-30(9) of the Contract Compliance Regulations, every agency awarding a contract subject to the contract compliance requirements has an obligation to "aggressively solicit the participation of legitimate minority business enterprises as bidders, contractors, subcontractors and suppliers of materials." "Minority business enterprise" is defined in Section 4a-60 of the Connecticut General Statutes as a business wherein fifty-one percent or more of the capital stock, or assets belong to a person or persons: "(1) Who are active in daily affairs of the enterprise; (2) who have the power to direct the management and policies of the enterprise; and (3) who are members of a minority, as such term is defined in subsection (a) of Section 32-9n." An individual with a disability is also a minority business enterprise as provided by Section 4a-60g of the Connecticut General Statutes. The above definitions apply to the contract compliance requirements by virtue of Section 46a-68j-21(11) of the Contract Compliance Regulations.

The awarding agency will consider the following factors when reviewing the bidder's qualifications under the contract compliance requirements:

- (a) the bidder's success in implementing an affirmative action plan;
- (b) the bidder's success in developing an apprenticeship program complying with Sections 46a-68-1 to 46a-68-17 of the Administrative Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies, inclusive;

- (d) the bidder's submission of employment statistics contained in the "Employment Information Form", indicating that the composition of its workforce is at or near parity when compared to the racial and sexual composition of the workforce in the relevant labor market area; and
- (e) the bidder's promise to set aside a portion of the contract for legitimate minority business enterprises. See Section 46a-68j-30(10)(E) of the Contract Compliance Regulations.

NOTICE TO EXECUTIVE BRANCH STATE CONTRACTORS AND PROSPECTIVE STATE CONTRACTORS OF CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTION AND SOLICITATION BAN

This notice is provided under the authority of Connecticut General Statutes 9-612(g)(2), as amended by P.A. 07-1, and is for the purpose of informing state contractors and prospective state contractors of the following law (italicized words are defined on page 2):

Campaign Contribution and Solicitation Ban

No state contractor, prospective state contractor, principal of a state contractor or principal of a prospective state contractor, with regard to a state contract or state contract solicitation with or from a state agency in the executive branch or a quasi-public agency or a holder, or principal of a holder of a valid prequalification certificate, shall make a contribution to, or solicit contributions on behalf of (i) an exploratory committee or candidate committee established by a candidate for nomination or election to the office of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, State Comptroller, Secretary of the State or State Treasurer, (ii) a political committee authorized to make contributions or expenditures to or for the benefit of such candidates, or (iii) a party committee;

In addition, no holder or principal of a holder of a valid prequalification certificate, shall make a contribution to, or solicit contributions on behalf of (i) an exploratory committee or candidate committee established by a candidate for nomination or election to the office of State senator or State representative, (ii) a political committee authorized to make contributions or expenditures to or for the benefit of such candidates, or (iii) a party committee.

Duty to Inform

State contractors and prospective state contractors are required to inform their principals of the above prohibitions, as applicable, and the possible penalties and other consequences of any violation thereof.

Penalties for Violations

Contributions or solicitations of contributions made in violation of the above prohibitions may result in the following civil and criminal penalties:

Civil penalties--$2000 or twice the amount of the prohibited contribution, whichever is greater, against a principal or a contractor. Any state contractor or prospective state contractor which fails to make reasonable efforts to comply with the provisions requiring notice to its principals of these prohibitions and the possible consequences of their violations may also be subject to civil penalties of $2000 or twice the amount of the prohibited contributions made by their principals.

Criminal penalties—Any knowing and willful violation of the prohibition is a Class D felony, which may subject the violator to imprisonment of not more than 5 years, or $5000 in fines, or both.

Contract Consequences

Contributions made or solicited in violation of the above prohibitions may result, in the case of a state contractor, in the contract being voided.

Contributions made or solicited in violation of the above prohibitions, in the case of a prospective state contractor, shall result in the contract described in the state contract solicitation not being awarded to the prospective state contractor, unless the State Elections Enforcement Commission determines that mitigating circumstances exist concerning such violation.

The state will not award any other state contract to anyone found in violation of the above prohibitions for a period of one year after the election for which such contribution is made or solicited, unless the State Elections Enforcement Commission determines that mitigating circumstances exist concerning such violation.

Guide for Current or Potential State Contractors

THE OFFICE OF STATE ETHICS (OSE)

The Connecticut Office of State Ethics (OSE) was officially created on July 1, 2005, by Public Act 05-183. The governing body of the OSE is the Citizen's Ethics Advisory Board (CEAB), nine members appointed by the Governor and legislative leadership. The CEAB holds monthly meetings that are open to the public and that are often covered by CT-N. A schedule of CEAB meeting dates, times and locations is available on the OSE's Web site, www.ct.gov/ethics.

The OSE is an independent watchdog agency for the state of Connecticut that administers Connecticut General Statutes, Chapter 10, Parts I and II, with limited jurisdiction over Part IV.

Simply put, the OSE educates all those covered by the law (the "regulated community"); provides information to the public; interprets and applies the codes of ethics; and investigates potential violations, and otherwise enforces the codes.

The OSE is made up of the following components:

- Citizen's Ethics Advisory Board
- Executive Director
- Legal Division
- Enforcement Division

THE BIG PICTURE

All state officials and employees (except judges) are covered by Part I of the Code of Ethics for Public Officials (henceforth, Part I, or the Code). It is important to remember that certain provisions of the Code also apply to public officials and state employees after they leave state service.

As you read through this guide, be aware that these laws were enacted to prevent individuals from using their public position or authority for personal, financial benefit.

Each state agency also has its own ethics policy, which in many cases may be more restrictive than what follows. Be sure to obtain a copy of the agency's policy before you attempt to provide any benefit to an agency official or employee.

Guide for Current or Potential State Contractors

GIVING BENEFITS TO STATE PERSONNEL

Gifts

As a current or potential state contractor, you are presumably doing business with or seeking to do business with a state agency, and are therefore considered to be a restricted donor. In general, public officials, state employees and candidates for public office may not accept gifts from restricted donors.

Restricted Donors

Restricted donors include:

- Registered lobbyists (a list is available on the OSE's Web site) or a lobbyist's representative;
- Individuals or groups doing business with a state department or agency;
- Individuals or groups seeking to do business with a state department or agency;
- Individuals or groups engaged in activities regulated by a state department or agency; or
- Contractors pre-qualified by the Connecticut Department of Administrative Services (Conn. Gen. Stat. § 4a-100).

A gift is defined as anything of value that is directly and personally received by a public official or state employee (or sometimes family members of those two categories) unless consideration of equal or greater value is provided. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-79 (e).

Gift Exceptions

There are, however, certain exceptions to this definition of gift. Not all exceptions are covered below; see Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-79 (e) (1) – (17) for the complete list.

- Token Items – Restricted donors such as current or potential state contractors may provide any item of value that is not more than $10 (such as a pen, mug, or inexpensive baseball cap) to a public official or state employee, provided that the annual aggregate of such items from a single source is $50 or less. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-79 (e) (16).
- Food and Beverage – Restricted donors may also provide less than $50 worth of food and beverage in a calendar year to a public official or state employee, provided that the restricted donor or his/her representative is in attendance when the food and/or beverage is being consumed. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-79 (e) (9).
- Training – Vendors may provide public officials and state employees with training for a product purchased by a state or quasi-public agency provided such training is offered to all customers of that vendor. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-79 (e) (17).

Guide for Current or Potential State Contractors

- Gifts to the State – Restricted donors may provide what are typically referred to as “gifts to the state.” These gifts are goods and services provided to a state agency or quasi-public agency for use on state or quasi-public agency property or that support an event, and which facilitate state or quasi-public action or functions. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-79 (e) (5).
- Other Exceptions – There are a total of 17 separate gift exceptions in the Code. Also exempt from the definition of gift are items such as informational materials germane to state action, ceremonial plaques or awards costing less than $100, or promotional items, rebates or discounts also available to the general public. See Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-79 (e) (1) – (17).

Note: The popularly-cited exception for major life events does not apply to those who are regulated by, doing business with or seeking to do business with a state agency. The only restricted donor that can make use of this very narrow exception is a registered lobbyist.

Gift Provisions

Example: You are in the process of submitting a contracting bid to a state agency. You provide the agency head with a gift certificate for $45 to a popular West Hartford eatery for her to use on her own. You have not previously given anything of value to this individual. Even though you are under the permissible $49.99 food and beverage limit, this gift is not allowed because you or your representative will not be in attendance while the food and beverage is being consumed.

Reporting Requirements

Should you or your representative give something of $10 or more in value to a public official or state employee, you must, within 10 days, give the gift recipient and the head of that individual’s department or agency a written report stating:

- Name of the donor;
- Description of item(s) given;
- Value of such item(s); and
- Total cumulative value of all items to date given to that recipient during the calendar year.

This helps both you and the state employee keep track of the gift exceptions noted above, so that permissible limits are not exceeded. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84 (o). A courtesy form is available for this notification on the OSE’s Web site, in the “Forms” section.

Guide for Current or Potential State Contractors

Necessary Expenses

You may provide necessary expenses to a public official or state employee only if the official or employee, in his/her official capacity, is actively participating in an event by giving a speech or presentation, running a workshop, or having some other active involvement.

Necessary expenses are limited to:

- Travel (coach or economy class);
- Lodging (standard cost of room for the nights before, of, and immediately following the event);
- Meals; and
- Related conference expenses.

Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-79 (9).

Entertainment costs (tickets to sporting events, golf outings, night clubs, etc.) are not necessary expenses. Necessary expense payments also do not include payment of expenses for family members or other guests.

Fees/Honorariums

Public officials and state employees may not accept fees or honorariums for an article, appearance, speech or participation at an event in their official capacity.

Fees or honorariums for such activities, if offered based solely on expertise and without any regard to official capacity, may be acceptable. Contact the OSE before offering such payment to an official or employee. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84 (k).

Necessary Expenses, Fees and Honorariums

Example: You invite a state employee to travel to New York City to give a speech to your managers on issues surrounding contracting with a state agency. You provide Amtrak fare for the employee as well as his spouse, who will spend the day in the city. The evening of the speech, you will treat the employee and his spouse with complimentary tickets to a Broadway show in lieu of a speaking fee. You may provide coach class travel expenses only to the state employee who is actively participating in an event. In this case, you may only provide Amtrak fare for the employee giving the speech, not his spouse. Entertainment costs, such as tickets to a show, are not considered necessary expenses and may not be provided. Additionally, state employees may not accept fees or honorariums for a speech given in their official capacity.

Guide for Current or Potential State Contractors

HIRING STATE PERSONNEL

Post-state Employment (Revolving Door)

If you are considering hiring a former state employee, you should be aware of the Code's post-state employment, or revolving door, provisions.

Lifetime Bans

- Former state employees may never disclose any confidential information they learned during the course of their state service for anyone's financial gain. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84a.
- A former state official or employee may never represent anyone other than the state regarding a particular matter in which he or she was personally or substantially involved while in state service and in which the state has a substantial interest. This prevents side switching. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84b (a).

One-year Bans

- If you hire or otherwise engage the services of a former state official or employee, he or she may not represent you before his or her former agency for a period of one year after leaving state service. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84b (b). (See Advisory Opinion 2003-3, which provides a limited exception to this provision if the employee is providing purely technical expertise to help implement a previously-awarded contract. This exception applies to extremely limited circumstances; contact the OSE for guidance.)
- You are prohibited from hiring a former state official or employee for a period of one year after he or she leaves state service if that individual was substantially involved in, or supervised, the negotiation or award of a contract (that you or your business was a party to) valued at $50,000 or more, and the contract was signed within his or her last year of state service. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84b (f).
- Employees who held certain specifically-designated positions (with significant decision-making or supervisory responsibility) at certain state regulatory agencies are prohibited from seeking or accepting employment with any business subject to regulation by the individual's agency within one year of leaving the agency. Likewise, such businesses may not hire those employees. Note that there is an exception for ex-officio board or commission members. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84b (c).

Post-state Employment

Example: You run a hospital regulated by the Office of Health Care Access (OHCA). You would like to offer a job to the former Commissioner of OHCA, who has been out of state service for 5 months. Because the hospital is regulated by a state agency whose Commissioner is specifically designated in 1-84b (c), the former head of such agency would not be permitted to accept employment with you for one full year after leaving state service. See Advisory Opinion 2003-19.

Guide for Current or Potential State Contractors

Outside Employment for Current Public Officials and State Employees

If you are considering hiring a current state employee, especially from a state agency with which you do business or by which you are regulated, you should be aware of the following rules regarding the employment of current state employees.

- A current state employee may not accept outside employment that impairs his or her independence of judgment regarding his or her state duties, or that encourages him or her to disclose confidential information learned in his or her state job. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84 (b).
- A current state employee may not use his or her state position for his or her own financial gain or the gain of his or her family (spouse, child, child's spouse, parent, brother or sister) or an associated business, however inadvertent that use may be. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84 (c).

Other Considerations

Business entities engaged in Indian gaming activities in the state should be aware of specific provisions that apply to present or former Gaming Policy Board or Division of Special Revenue public officials or employees. See Conn. Gen. Stat. §§ 1-84b (d) and (e).

Outside Employment

Example: Your small business occasionally receives grants or contracts from Agency X. You know that a particular contract manager with Agency X has the skills you need to help you grow your business. This employee has expressed interest in earning a little extra money for himself, while helping you with your business in the evenings and on weekends. It would constitute an impermissible impairment of judgment for the employee of Agency X, who has contract management responsibilities, to accept outside employment with your business – a business that receives grants or contracts from Agency X.

Guide for Current or Potential State Contractors

OTHER PROVISIONS

Prohibited Activities for Consultants or Independent Contractors

If you are hired by the state as a consultant or independent contractor, you are prohibited from the following:

- Using your authority under the contract or any confidential information acquired during the course of the contract for your financial gain or the financial gain of your immediate family;
- Accepting another state contract that would impair your independence of judgment or your performance in your existing state contract; and
- Accepting anything of value based on the understanding that your actions on behalf of the state would be influenced.

Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-86e (1) – (3); see also Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-101nn.

Gift and/or Campaign Contribution Certifications

Contractors seeking large state contracts must provide certifications regarding gifts and/or campaign contributions made to certain state employees or public officials in the two-year period prior to the submission of a bid or proposal. Copies of these certifications and other updated information regarding state contractors can be found on the Web sites of the Department of Administrative Services (www.das.state.ct.us) and the Office of Policy and Management (www.opm.state.ct.us).

Investment Services and the Office of the Treasurer

If you or your business provides investment services, as defined in the Code, and you make a political contribution to the State Treasurer's campaign, you may be prohibited from contracting with the Office of the Treasurer. See Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-84 (n).

Registering as a Lobbyist

If you or your business spends or receives over $2,000 in a calendar year for activities that constitute lobbying under Part II of the Code of Ethics (whether to affect legislation or the actions of an administrative state agency), you/your business may have to register as a lobbyist with the Office of State Ethics. Lobbyist registration information is available at www.ct.gov/ethics.

Contribution Ban for Communicator Lobbyists (Conn. Gen. Stat. § 9-610 (g) and (h).)

Registered communicator lobbyists, their affiliated political action committees (PACs), as well as members of their immediate families are banned from soliciting or donating political campaign contributions. Please contact the State Elections Enforcement Commission at 860-256-2940 for more information.

Guide for Current or Potential State Contractors

Sessional Contribution Ban for Client Lobbyists (Conn. Gen. Stat. § 9-610 (e).)

Registered lobbyists and their affiliated political action committees (PACs) are banned from soliciting or donating political campaign contributions. Specifically, there is a temporary ban while the General Assembly is in session that applies to all registered client lobbyists and their affiliated PACs. Please contact the State Elections Enforcement Commission at 860-256-2940 for more information.

Public Act 05-287

Public Act 05-287 prohibits anyone who is a party (or seeking to become a party) to a large state construction, procurement, or consultant services contract over $500,000 from:

- Soliciting information from a public official or state employee that is not available to other bidders for that contract, with the intent to obtain a competitive advantage;
- Intentionally or recklessly charging a state agency for work not performed or goods or services not provided;
- Falsifying invoices or bills; or
- Intentionally violating or circumventing state competitive bidding and ethics laws.

This Act also requires any prospective state contractor to affirm in writing that he or she has received a summary of the state's ethics laws and that his or her key employees have read and understood the summary and agree to comply with the applicable provisions. Conn. Gen. Stat. § 1-101qq.

An affirmation form is available through the Connecticut Office of Policy and Management.

Executive Orders

Executive Order 3

Under this Order, the Department of Administrative Services established and maintains on its Web site the State Contracting Portal for purposes of posting all contracting opportunities with state agencies and providing information on contracting processes and procedures.

Executive Order 7C

This Order covers the State Contracting Standards Board, established to conduct a comprehensive review of existing procurement and contracting laws and prepare a uniform code to govern all aspects of procurement and contracting.

The full text of these Executive Orders can be found on the Governor's Web site, www.ct.gov/governorrell/site/default.asp.

GUIDANCE FOR VENDOR AUTHORIZATIONS

Contracts must be accompanied by appropriate vendor documentation evidencing the following three things: (1) the authority of the vendor to enter into contracts; (2) the authority of a particular officer to execute contracts on behalf of the vendor; and (3) that the officer signing for the vendor in fact holds the office that he/she purports to hold. "Appropriate vendor documentation" usually involves a certificate from the Secretary or other appropriate officer of the vendor setting forth a copy of a resolution. Sample form certificates are included below. Sometimes getting this certificate is not possible, in which case please note:

a. In lieu of the secretary's certificate, vendors must submit (1) a current certified copy of the applicable section of the corporation's bylaws which authorize the execution of contracts by the signing officer and (2) a current certification that the signing officer in fact holds that office. Established companies may have adopted these bylaws or resolutions years earlier. These bylaws or resolutions may even provide that the authority shall be as set forth in some sort of "company plan," in which case we need a certified copy of the plan or the relevant portion of the plan.

b. In lieu of the secretary's certificate or bylaws, the vendors must include a certified copy of the minutes of their governing bodies (like the board of directors), which must specifically authorize the officer signing the agreement to execute it. This often is unavailable and it is easier to obtain the above secretary's certificate.

c. LLCs, which do not have boards of directors, must submit a unanimous consent from all members or managers or a certified copy of all of those relevant portions of their management agreement or operations agreement that identify which members or managers have the authority to bind the LLC in contracts. The certification must also show that the signing party is in fact a manager/member or that a member/manager has duly (that is, in accordance with the management agreement or operations agreement) delegated signatory authority to the signing party. Some management agreements and operations agreements place certain restrictions on the authority of a member/manager to bind the LLC. For example, sometimes the agreements require that a majority of managers/members act jointly. We won't be aware of these or any other limitations unless we receive a certified copy of the relevant portions of the agreement.

d. Partnerships, like LLCs, do not have boards of directors. Generally, any general partner can bind the partnership. However, it is prudent to make every effort to obtain a partnership authorization that includes some evidence of a partner's authority to bind the partnership. This can include partnership resolutions that read very much like a corporation's resolutions or a copy of the partnership agreement (or all relevant sections) that address the authority of partners to bind the partnership, again taking into account any limitations, or a consent from the appropriate partners. The partnership agreement governs in the same way as the LLC's management or operations agreement.

e. Some companies don't hold board meetings to approve every contract that they sign, especially if the value is low. In that case, use "a" above for guidance.

f. If the company can't find the bylaws or resolutions or can't get the appropriate certificate, then ask them for a formal "legal opinion" from their attorney attesting to the authority of the company to enter into the transaction and the officer's ability to bind the company. An opinion from outside, private counsel is preferred over one from in-house counsel, but either will do.

The following are sample authorizations forms designed for different entities which can be modified, but each of which must accomplish the three things enumerated in the first paragraph above. For a corporation, use EITHER Form "AA" or "BB." For a partnership use EITHER Form "CC" or "DD." For an LLC, use EITHER Form "EE" or "FF." The last form, Form GG, is a sample legal opinion and any legal opinion obtained must include the listed items at a minimum.

Agencies need not obtain a new vendor authorization if the vendor provides a copy of one that is less than one year old. However, the agency must obtain an incumbency certificate, dated no more than 30 days prior to the execution of the agreement, which affirms that the officer signing the agreement in fact holds that office. Form HH is a sample incumbency certificate.

Re: PROCUREMENT

Opinion Letter

Dear SALUTATION:

I have acted as corporate counsel to VENDOR and have the authority to deliver this opinion letter. In my capacity as such counsel I have reviewed or am familiar with VENDOR'S authorizing resolutions, by-laws, incorporation documents and draft _____ Agreement (the "Agreement") with the State of Connecticut. Based upon the foregoing, I am of the opinion that:

1. VENDOR is authorized to transact business in the State of Connecticut.
2. VENDOR has the corporate power and authority to execute and deliver ("contracts" or "the Agreement").
3. The Board of Directors has authorized VENDOR to enter into ("contracts" or "the Agreement").
4. OFFICER NAME, as OFFICER TITLE of VENDOR, has the requisite power and authority to execute ("contracts" or "the Agreement") on behalf of and to bind VENDOR accordingly.

Sincerely,
