

Spouse Waiver of Monthly Survivor Benefits

PART I - GENERAL INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS - PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

All single employees and all married employees who do not choose a payment option giving their spouse a lifetime benefit at the time of their retirement are required to fill out and execute this form. For purposes of this form, "spouse" also includes civil union partners. If the member is not married as of the date of the anticipated retirement, the member must execute Part II of this form - if married, then both the member and the spouse must execute Part III - Member Statement and Spousal Waiver.

PART III - MEMBER STATEMENT AND SPOUSE WAIVER

Member's Statement: After reviewing the payment options with my spouse and the possible effect of my election to him or her on the monthly pension benefit and continuing health insurance, I have chosen to retire with:

- Option B - 50 or 100% Survivorship Option C - 10/20 year certain Option D - Straight Life

Name of Annuitant: _____ Not Applicable for Option D

SIGNATURE OF MEMBER: _____ DATE: _____

Spouse Waiver - To Be Signed in Front of a Notary: I understand that at retirement my spouse is required to select a payment option (Option A or B) which will provide me with lifetime retirement benefits and health insurance coverage after his or her death unless I waive my right to these lifetime benefits. I understand that unless I am a named contingent annuitant on a payment election I will not receive any pension payment or health insurance coverage after my spouse's death. I understand that retiree health insurance is tied into the receipt of a state retiree pension - if there is no pension benefit there is no health insurance. I understand that by signing this form.
